

Interdisciplinary Humanities M.A. Requirements--Revised

Fall, 2009

Students are required to take 36 hours of approved coursework, and there will be no M.A. Comprehensive Examination. Students admitted prior to Fall, 2009 may opt out of the M.A. Comprehensive Examination by taking 36 hours of approved coursework, instead of 33 hours under the exam option.

Note: M.A. students opting out of the exam who are enrolled for Fall, 2009 in "Reading for Exam" hours may maintain that enrollment, as long as they meet the 36 hour coursework requirement, or they may drop some or all of those hours and replace them with coursework. Students should consult the Graduate Advisor about their specific cases.
